MASS THEME EXPLAINED

1st Sunday of Lent

"Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." (Gospel). 1. The devil points to the bread of fleshly desire. "Now is the acceptable time" to "ration" our self-indulgence, our worship of entreat physical culture (EPISTLE), and to feed our souls with the Divine Word. This temptation calls for the mortification of self.

2. The "Pinnacle of the temple", recalls the pride of usurping God's Power, of trying to live beyond His reach. We must topple ourselves from the pinnacle of pride and lift ourselves up by prayer to the pinnacle of God Himself.

3. The "kingdoms of the world," seen in the distance, represent those who covet mere earthly "glory." To offset this temptation there must be almsgiving or devoting one's talents to the service of one's neighbor.

The EPISTLE exhorts us not to receive "in vain" this plan of personal reformation, first by warning, then by encouraging us in the eternal struggle between Christ and Antichrist.

(Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Stedman)

And behold, angels came and ministered to Him.

PRAYER TO ST JUDE

Luke

Most charming and saintly Physician, you were animated by the heavenly Spirit of love. In faithfully detailing the humanity of Jesus, you also showed his divinity and his genuine compassion for all human beings. Inspire our physicians with your professionalism and with the divine compassion for their patients. Enable them to cure the ills of both body and spirit that afflict so many in our day. Amen

CHAPEL INFORMATION

Guests: Welcome. Our Chapel follows the Traditional Latin Mass and Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church prior to Second Vatican Council in 1962. If you wish to join our parish you are encouraged to meet to our Priest and to discuss any questions or concerns regarding spiritual needs and requirements for receiving the Sacraments. General questions about our Chapel can be answered by any or our Chapel Board Members, who can be identified by their Immaculate Heart of Mary lapel pins. To be registered with Our Chapel, please provide your name and address in an offering envelope.

Chapel Modesty Code: According to Apostolic custom and Church Law, women and girls are required to have their heads covered. Out of respect for Our Lord and mutual edification, men and women should dress modestly. Slacks, shorts, sleeveless and low-cut dresses do not meet the norm of Christian modesty. Clothes which are too casual are inappropriate. This matter is evidence of your love for Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Mauricio Zarate, Pastor; Father Emilio Jose Fattore, Assistant
Society of Priests of St. Louis, King of France

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Chapel safeguards the Traditional Latin Mass and Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church as directed by the Council of Trent and promulgated by Pope St. Pius V.
